I was brought up in North London, in a Christian home and gave my heart to Jesus at an early age. My family church was Open Brethren and I was baptised there at the age of fourteen. My parents, were both lay preachers and leaders of “Crusader Classes,” young peoples interdenominational Bible classes, which were also sports and activity orientated. When I was eighteen I followed my parents to live in Switzerland, returning to the UK on my own at a later date.

My work background and college education is in finance/accountancy and my career has also been allied to hotel management.

I have had several profound experiences as an adult whilst walking with the Lord and thank Him for what He has done in my life.

I became involved in CBS in London twenty years ago, eventually becoming leader of the Central London Class. Having seen the many lives transformed as a result of being part of that class, I felt God was leading me to plant classes in the South of England. The Biblical model of "team" that CBS promotes helped in this process and I love to build and encourage 'teams' to disciple others and promote the work of CBS in a culturally relevant way.

I am married to Richard who along with my son David is in the Motor Trade and also have a daughter Julia and a small grandson. Richard attends a CBS class in Luton.
